all civil and criminal in-person proceedings in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, including court appearances, trials, hearings, and settlement conferences, scheduled to occur through May 1, 2020, are POSTPONED and CONTINUED, and will be rescheduled at a later date, unless the presiding judge in an individual case issues, or has issued, an order after the filing of General Order 2020-03 directing that a particular critical or emergency proceeding will be held on or before May 1, 2020, because a manifest injustice would result if such proceeding were not conducted on an expedited basis.

General Order No. 2020-07 at 5. General Order No. 2020-07 also provided that:

all filing deadlines now set to fall on or before April 14, 2020, are EXTENDED by fourteen days, unless the presiding judge in an individual case issues or has issued an order after the filing of General Order 2020-03 directing that filings be submitted on or before April 14, 2020.

General Order No. 2020-07 at 6. On Friday, March 27, 2020, counsel for defendant Dallmann contacted the Clerk's Office to inquire whether a separate Order would be entered in this case.
